CATALOGUE, CONSTITUTION, RULES

AND

REGULATIONS

OF THE

FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

CONSTITUTION.

1. The Library will be known as the "Chatham Free Public Library."
2. The Library and all the appurtenances thereto belonging shall rest in and be the property of the Town of Chatham.
3. The affairs and business of the Library shall be managed by a Board of seven Commissioners.
4. The first Board of Commissioners, named at a public meeting, April 28th, 1898, and subsequently approved by the Town Council, shall be retired by lot, two at the regular monthly meeting in May, 1899; two in 1900, and the remaining three in 1901, the vacancies so made, or those occurring from death or resignation, to be filled by appointments by the Town Council.
5. Thereafter the Commissioners shall be annually retired in the same number and order as provided for by Sec. 4, but by seniority of appointment, the Town Council filling all vacancies so created.
6. The officers shall consist of a Chairman, Secretary, Treasurer and Librarian, to be appointed by the Board of Commissioners at the first regular meeting after the annual meeting in May.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

1. Under the direction of the Board of Commissioners, the Librarian shall have charge of the Library and be responsible for the care and safety of the books and other property of the same.

2. Any citizen recommended by the Mayor or an Alderman of the town, or one of the Library Commissioners, and signing the application, thereby agreeing to conform to the rules and regulations, shall be entitled to the use of the Library.

3. Any non-resident recommended in a similar manner and paying one dollar and fifty cents per annum in advance shall also be admitted to the free use of the Library.

4. Before being allowed the use of the Library, everyone must, on payment of 10 cents, receive a card inscribed with his or her name, address and register number, which card must be presented to the Librarian when application is made for a book or one is being returned. If the card be lost, notice must be given the Librarian, who shall issue another on payment of 10 cents.

5. No one shall be entitled to take out at a time more than one volume of octavo or larger size, or two volumes of smaller size, they being the same work.

6. Books may be retained two weeks. Books that have been in the Library for a period of three months may be retained by out of town subscribers for one month.

7. Anyone applying for a book that is out, shall, on the payment of 10 cents, be entitled to have the same retained for him for 48 hours after its return, of which he shall be promptly notified by the Librarian by postal card.

8. A fine of 5 cents per day, up to the value of the volume, will be imposed for detaining a book longer than the time allowed by the rules. Fines will also be imposed for turning down leaves, marking or injuring a book beyond reasonable wear and tear.

9. A person may draw once after incurring a fine, but the card will be retained and the further privileges of the Library suspended until the fine is paid.

10. If any one loses, destroys, or fails to return a book, and does not, within a reasonable time after demand is made, provide a similar copy, the person who recommended him must be notified of such default, and held responsible for the same.

11. No one shall be permitted to take books from the shelves, except the Librarian and assistants.

12. No book, magazine, etc., shall be retained or laid aside by Librarian or assistants for any reader, except as provided for by section 7.

13. New books, magazines, etc. shall have their leaves cut by the Librarian and placed on the shelves before being issued, and all books when returned must be registered and shelved before being reissued.

14. Readers desirous of proposing books, magazines, etc., may do so by writing the names in a book kept for that purpose in the Library, which will be submitted regularly to the Board of Commissioners.

15. The use of tobacco is prohibited in all the rooms of the Library, nor shall anyone bring a dog therein.

16. Noise and loud conversation in the Library is strictly prohibited.

17. The Library shall be open from 3 to 6 p. m., and from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m., except on legal holidays.

18. It shall be the duty of the Librarian to enforce these regulations and collect all fines and pay them over to the Treasurer.

19. The following is the blank form of recommendation required by section 2:

Chatham, N. B., 19

To the Librarian Free Public Library, Chatham.

I recommend _____ of Chatham (occupation)
as a fit person to enjoy the privileges of the Free Public Library, and I hereby guarantee to make good any loss or injury the Library may sustain in consequence of this certificate.

(Signed)

If the signer desires at any time to revoke the certificate, he must give notice thereof to the Librarian, who must give a release as soon as he ascertains no liability exists.

20. These regulations, or any of them, may be repealed or amended, or new regulations made at any regular meeting of the Commissioners, one month's notice to that effect having been given the Board.
